Study Haven
Question Paper

Board: CIE A Levels

Subject: 9699

Topics: GLOBALISATION, MEDIA AND RELIGION

Years: 2023, 2024, 2022, 2021, 2020, 2019, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2015

Papers: 1, 2, 3, 4

Questions: 120

Question 1 - 9699/May/June/24/41 Q6

‘The growth of religious fundamentalism is a reaction to globalisation.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 2 - 9699/May/June/24/43 Q1

‘Cultural differences between countries have been replaced by a single global culture.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 3 - 9699/May/June/24/42 Q4

‘Governments have no control over media content.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 4 - 9699/May/June/24/42 Q5

‘Religious organisations serve the interests of the ruling class.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 5 - 9699/May/June/24/41 Q1

‘Only rich countries benefit from globalisation.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 6 - 9699/May/June/24/42 Q2

‘Global migration has only negative consequences for developing countries.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 7 - 9699/May/June/24/43 Q2

‘Poor people in developing countries benefit most from global migration.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 8 - 9699/May/June/24/43 Q6

‘Religion promotes social solidarity.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 9 - 9699/May/June/24/41 Q4

‘Media content reflects the interests of the rich and powerful.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 10 - 9699/May/June/24/41 Q5

‘Religion serves to maintain the existing social order.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 11 - 9699/May/June/24/43 Q4

‘Evidence clearly shows that media content has a direct impact on human behaviour.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 12 - 9699/May/June/24/42 Q6

‘Religion has less social significance today than in the past.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 13 - 9699/May/June/24/41 Q2

‘Globalisation has made crime harder to police.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 14 - 9699/May/June/24/42 Q3

‘Postmodernists have exaggerated the influence of the media in people’s lives today.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 15 - 9699/May/June/24/43 Q3

‘Media content is controlled by editors and journalists.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 16 - 9699/May/June/24/42 Q1

‘Transnational organisations have contributed to an increase in global inequality.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 17 - 9699/May/June/24/41 Q3

‘The media does not have a direct impact on human behaviour.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 18 - 9699/May/June/24/43 Q5

‘Many societies are experiencing a revival in religious belief.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 19 - 9699/May/June/23/43 Q6

‘People are just as religious today as in the past.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 20 - 9699/May/June/23/43 Q4

‘Representations of women in the media reflect patriarchal values.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 21 - 9699/May/June/23/43 Q1

‘Only the rich and powerful benefit from globalisation.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 22 - 9699/May/June/23/42 Q5

‘Religion is a source of conflict in society.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 23 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/41 Q1

‘Cultural differences between people are disappearing as a result of globalisation.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 24 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/43 Q2

‘The main factor behind the rise in global crime is Western exploitation of developing societies.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 25 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/43 Q6

‘Religion has lost its social significance.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 26 - 9699/May/June/23/42 Q2

‘Modernisation theory provides the best explanation of why some countries remain poor.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 27 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/43 Q1

‘Cultural differences between people are disappearing as a result of globalisation.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 28 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/43 Q3

‘The media is able to shape the way people think and behave.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 29 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/41 Q2

‘The main factor behind the rise in global crime is Western exploitation of developing societies.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 30 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/43 Q4

‘The new media is controlled by the rich and powerful.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 31 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/43 Q5

‘Religion supports patriarchal values.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 32 - 9699/May/June/23/41 Q5

‘The function of religion is to maintain social order.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 33 - 9699/May/June/23/41 Q3

‘The cultural effects model provides the best explanation of how the media influences behaviour.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 34 - 9699/May/June/23/41 Q6

‘Women have little power within religious organisations.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 35 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/42 Q5

‘Rather than uniting people in society, religion is a source of conflict.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 36 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/42 Q6

‘Religious organisations have little influence in society today.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 37 - 9699/May/June/23/42 Q4

‘The two-step flow model provides the best explanation of media influence.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 38 - 9699/May/June/23/41 Q4

‘The media is an agent of ideological control.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 39 - 9699/May/June/23/42 Q1

‘Capitalism is the main reason for the growth in global crime.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 40 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/42 Q1

‘Global inequality is best explained by the continuing impact of colonialism.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 41 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/41 Q4

‘The new media is controlled by the rich and powerful.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 42 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/42 Q3

‘Media content is controlled by the owners of the media.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 43 - 9699/May/June/23/43 Q5

‘Religion is an instrument of social control.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 44 - 9699/May/June/23/43 Q2

‘Aid programmes are ineffective in reducing poverty in developing countries.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 45 - 9699/May/June/23/41 Q2

‘Globalisation is reducing poverty in developing societies.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 46 - 9699/May/June/23/42 Q6

‘Resacrilisation is occurring in many societies.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 47 - 9699/May/June/23/42 Q3

‘Media content is shaped by the interests of the ruling class.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 48 - 9699/May/June/23/43 Q3

‘Audiences have no influence on the content of the media.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 49 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/42 Q2

‘Global migration has entirely negative consequences for migrant groups.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 50 - 9699/May/June/23/41 Q1

‘Globalisation is leading to cultural convergence.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 51 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/41 Q6

‘Religion has lost its social significance.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 52 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/42 Q4

‘The new media is a powerful tool through which people are able to challenge government authority.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 53 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/41 Q5

‘Religion supports patriarchal values.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 54 - 9699/Oct/Nov/23/41 Q3

‘The media is able to shape the way people think and behave.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 55 - 9699/May/June/22/42 Q5

‘Religion encourages people to accept oppression.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 56 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/42 Q2

‘Global migration is creating more poverty.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 57 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/43 Q4

‘There is clear evidence that the media has a direct impact on human behaviour.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 58 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/41 Q6

‘Growth in support for new religious movements and New Age ideas shows that religion has lost its social significance.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 59 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/43 Q2

‘Globalisation has failed to benefit developing societies.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 60 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/43 Q1

‘Poverty in developing societies is the main factor contributing to the growth in global crime.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 61 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/42 Q1

‘Globalisation has led to greater cultural diversity.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 62 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/42 Q4

‘The media serves the interests of a wide range of groups.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 63 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/43 Q5

‘Religion helps the ruling class maintain social control.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 64 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/41 Q5

‘Religion helps the ruling class maintain social control.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 65 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/42 Q5

‘Religion has become less important in people’s lives.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 66 - 9699/May/June/22/41 Q6

‘People are less religious today than in the past.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 67 - 9699/May/June/22/43 Q4

‘Governments control the media.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 68 - 9699/May/June/22/43 Q5

‘Religion functions to bind people together in society.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 69 - 9699/May/June/22/43 Q2

‘Transnational organisations have been successful in improving life chances in developing countries.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 70 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/43 Q3

‘Audiences are the main influence on the content of the media.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 71 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/43 Q6

‘Growth in support for new religious movements and New Age ideas shows that religion has lost its social significance.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 72 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/41 Q4

‘There is clear evidence that the media has a direct impact on human behaviour.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 73 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/41 Q3

‘Audiences are the main influence on the content of the media.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 74 - 9699/May/June/22/43 Q3

‘Postmodernists are right that social reality today is shaped by the media.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 75 - 9699/May/June/22/41 Q5

‘Religion is a force for social change.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 76 - 9699/May/June/22/42 Q2

‘Global migration has more positive than negative consequences for both migrants and host countries.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 77 - 9699/May/June/22/41 Q2

‘Governments are unable to prevent the growth of global crime.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 78 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/42 Q6

‘Religion has become less patriarchal.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 79 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/42 Q3

‘The cultural effects model has many strengths and few limitations.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 80 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/41 Q1

‘Poverty in developing societies is the main factor contributing to the growth in global crime.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 81 - 9699/Oct/Nov/22/41 Q2

‘Globalisation has failed to benefit developing societies.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 82 - 9699/May/June/22/43 Q6

‘There is clear evidence that religion has lost its social significance.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 83 - 9699/May/June/22/42 Q3

‘The media has a significant influence on how people behave.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 84 - 9699/May/June/22/42 Q6

‘Religious fundamentalism is best explained as a response to secularisation.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 85 - 9699/May/June/22/42 Q4

‘The media still portrays women in traditional gender roles.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 86 - 9699/May/June/22/42 Q1

‘Global inequality is caused by capitalist exploitation of developing countries.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 87 - 9699/May/June/22/41 Q4

‘The growth of the new media has weakened the power of governments.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 88 - 9699/May/June/22/41 Q3

‘Media owners control the content of the media.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 89 - 9699/May/June/22/41 Q1

‘Globalisation has a positive impact on developing societies.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 90 - 9699/May/June/22/43 Q1

‘Only rich people benefit from global migration.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 91 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/41 Q5

‘Women are oppressed by religion.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 92 - 9699/May/June/21/43 Q2

‘Dependency theory provides the best explanation of global inequality.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 93 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/43 Q4

‘Access to the new media has given people more power to challenge existing power structures.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 94 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/43 Q2

‘Global migration has given people in developing countries more freedom and better life chances.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 95 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/42 Q1

‘Globalisation is a positive development that brings benefits to all social groups.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 96 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/43 Q1

‘Modernisation theory offers the best explanation for global inequality.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 97 - 9699/May/June/21/43 Q5

‘Rather than promoting social order, religion is a source of conflict in society.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 98 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/41 Q1

‘Modernisation theory offers the best explanation for global inequality.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 99 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/43 Q3

‘Media content is influenced mainly by editors and journalists.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 100 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/41 Q2

‘Global migration has given people in developing countries more freedom and better life chances.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 101 - 9699/May/June/21/43 Q1

‘Globalisation is leading to increased cultural diversity.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 102 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/42 Q2

‘Transnational organisations have helped to reduce global inequalities.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 103 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/42 Q5

‘Religion is a form of ruling class ideology.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 104 - 9699/May/June/21/43 Q6

‘There is little evidence to support the secularisation thesis.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 105 - 9699/May/June/21/42 Q3

‘Postmodernists are right in claiming that the media plays a central role in people’s lives today.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 106 - 9699/May/June/21/42 Q6

‘Growing support for new religious movements disproves the secularisation thesis.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 107 - 9699/May/June/21/42 Q4

‘The media serves the interests of the ruling class.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 108 - 9699/May/June/21/42 Q1

‘The large increase in global crime has been caused entirely by the spread of global capitalism.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 109 - 9699/May/June/21/43 Q4

‘The hypodermic syringe model accurately describes how people are influenced by the media.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 110 - 9699/May/June/21/43 Q3

‘Media content is controlled primarily by governments.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 111 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/41 Q3

‘Media content is influenced mainly by editors and journalists.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 112 - 9699/May/June/21/42 Q2

‘The consequences of globalisation for developing countries are entirely negative.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 113 - 9699/May/June/21/42 Q5

‘Religion is an obstacle to social change.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 114 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/42 Q4

‘Media representations of men and women are largely based on gender stereotypes.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 115 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/42 Q3

‘Research evidence suggests that the media has little impact on behaviour.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 116 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/42 Q6

‘The growth of religious fundamentalism is a reaction to the spread of western culture.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 117 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/41 Q4

‘Access to the new media has given people more power to challenge existing power structures.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 118 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/41 Q6

‘There is clear evidence that people are less religious today.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 119 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/43 Q5

‘Women are oppressed by religion.’ Evaluate this view. [35]

Question 120 - 9699/Oct/Nov/21/43 Q6

‘There is clear evidence that people are less religious today.’ Evaluate this view. [35]